TERRITORIAL NEWS.

We copy the following from the Miner of the 17th instant:

THE APACHES.—It is a positive fact that the Apaches have left the Verde Reservation. Yes, all, save six of the savages took "French leave" on the night of the 13th inst., for what reason, they did not state.

The day before their departure, a body of them called upon the commanding officer—Captain Carr —and demanded the arms they had given up.

The Captain did not comply with their request.

One thing is certain, their leaving was not brought about by any citizen or soldier influence. They have had no just cause for deserting so good a boarding place; and now, that they have again broken faith, we hope the Government will not make a fool of itself again, by begging the wretches to return.

During the past two weeks, several animals have been stolen from citizens of this vicinity, by Indians, and, now that the late boarders at Verde have thrown off their peace masks, we look for more murders and heavy robberies.

INDIAN SUPPLIES.—We have been informed that the firm of W.
B. Hooper & Co. has been (or soon will be) awarded contracts for supplying such goods, as were recently advertised for, to be delivered at the old Indian reservations in this Territory.

C. P. Head & Co., of this place, proposed to furnish such supplies, but did not dream there were other bids, and are, we learn, a little put out to know that Hooper & Co. have underbid them. Such, however, is life among business men.

Don't know that Head & Co. attribute their ill success to anything save the altitude of their proposals.

An English gentleman is erecting a paper mill in Florida, and will manufacture paper for the Bank of England notes from palmetto wood.

Chihuahua.

News from the State of Chihuahua are exciting. Guerra holds the city of Chihuahua with three thousand troops, although some reports put the number as high as five thousand. It is said that the next day after the decisive battle by which Guerra gained possession of the state and routed Terazas, the country people flocked to the battle ground to secure arms and plunder. While they were thus occupied on the second day, Guerra's troops surrounded them and forced them into the ranks.
There was a report here that Guerra had levied a forced contribution upon the state of $400,000, but it lacks confirmation. The news of Monday tells us that Guerra allows any one to arrive at and depart from the city without molestation, that he has appointed State officers and is now running the Government machine. The revolutionists have taken Presidio del Norte and are threatening El Paso. At this point the authorities are doing everything in their power to prepare for defence. Tax is levied for this purpose to be paid in money or arms, and the country is being scoured in search of guns. We hear also that the crossing of the river from the Mexican side is prohibited by the Mexicans, no doubt preparatory to a draft. Guerra has sent an express carrier to El Paso to inquire of the authorities if they will obey his authority without further fighting. Terazas is trying to recruit a force to meet Guerra and the authorities of El Paso intend to join his forces.—

A question much canvassed among musical men since the Boston Jubilee is, whether it would be possible to produce in this country a first-class performer on that most difficult of instruments, the trumpet. Fired by this a young gentleman now works at a brass trumpet six hours a day, determined to become a virtuoso on the instrument or perish in the attempt. The boarding house in which he lives is now deserted.
